INVESTMENT CORPORATION OF AMERICA DONATES ONE MILLION DOLLARS TO THE AMERICAN RED CROSS FOR HURRICANE HARVEY RELIEF

Investment Corporation of America and its companies are donating one million dollars to help with the relief efforts for those devastated by Hurricane Harvey.

Investment Corporation of America is owned by John and Carol Bushman. ICA has businesses in several of the affected areas, including the MCM Eleganté Hotel in Beaumont, ICA Radio in Corpus Christi and A-1 Homes in Victoria and Splendora, Texas.

According to the Bushmans “We are extremely concerned for our team members and their families in these areas. We are praying for them and all our Texas neighbors who are going through this devastating situation.”

The Bushmans and ICA are asking other individuals and businesses in West Texas to match their contribution. Everyone is encouraged to donate to the relief effort of their choice, such as the Red Cross, local church efforts or partnering with any one of our local TV and radio stations efforts.

Investment Corporation of America owns the MCM Family of Hotels including the Eleganté and FunDome Hotels, Music City Mall, ICA Radio, A-1 Homes, Chickn 4U, Airline Mobile Home Park.
